. Heard Mr. Mohite, the learned Counsel for the applicant. The deceased is the wife of the applicant who died due to the burn injuries, which are 100 %. Apart from that, there was a head injury to the deceased. It is an admitted position that there was a quarrel between the husband and wife prior to the incident. The only submission made by Mr. Mohite is that after the quarrel, applicant have left the house and when he returned back, he found that his wife was dead and he reported to the police station. Except the husband and wife, no one resides in the house. The incident took place in the night at 11 'O' Clock. It is a case of custodial death. The applicant was not on bail during the trial and he is now convicted. We do not find any case for bail. Bail application is rejected. The appeal is expedited.
